Just walk across the room. Isn't that what we in Food Service do everyday? We walk across our kitchen and put our arms around that faithful volunteer and thank them for showing up to serve for the millionth time. We walk across the dining room to greet and love on those guests on Wednesday night that we served for years, decades maybe.

Across a Room ***

Ten thousand steps.

Roughly, that's the distance you travel

sunrise to sunset, each and every day of your life. It adds up to about 115,000 miles in a lifetime - or more than four times around this big blue planet of ours.

With that said, just one question: Are you using your steps wisely?
