Principalities and Powers : Revising John Howard Yoder's ...

These revisions to Yoder's theology of the principalities and powers produce a sociological theology that is material and spiritual, critical and dialogical, and particular and universal. By incorporating these revisions, Yoder's work can continue to support those who seek peace in a world riven by violence.

British Library ETHOS: Principalities and powers ...

" Principalities and Powers is an audacious revision of John Howard Yoder's thought. Pitts expands the current debate about Yoder's thought by addressing the hard questions Yoder brings with him. He proposes a way of overcoming the tension between particularity and universality. He lays out a historicism that is not prey to reductionism.
